

White Talks

The easing of the rules by the GDC now allows "Dental hygienists and dental therapists can carry out tooth whitening on the prescription of a dentist, if they have the necessary additional skills

Although whitening is often considered as the entry level treatment for many patients, both hygienists and dental therapists must be able to show that they have undergone appropriate training in these techniques

This Course will give you the additional training you need to fulfil the GDC criteria and give you the confidence to carry out whitening procedures on your patients... with predictable results.

Learn how to carry out whitening, safely and predictably, from two of the most experienced clinicians in the field of whitening – Zaki Kanaan and Dominique Kanaan. You will receive two hours of intensive quality training in Whitening treatments, followed by a live demonstration in the theatre, then hands on practical sessions, giving you an invaluable insight into the various whitening techniques available.

The system that you will be taught in and will be used in the live demo is manufactured by Discus Dental. However, this is not an endorsement and there will be other systems on the exhibition floor for you to explore and research further.
